Mission Statement
The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

The Standard of Excellence
The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 80-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2012-13 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC as conference teams captured seven national titles and six national runner-up finishes. The SEC has won consecutive national championships in football, gymnastics, men's indoor track & field and men's outdoor track and field. Since 1990, the SEC has won 156 national team championships for an average of more than six per year.

Alabama won the SEC's first national title of the year with its win in the BCS National Championship Game in football. It is the SEC's seventh consecutive football national title. Florida won the league's third consecutive gymnastics title and 16th overall. The Auburn equestrian team brought home the national title in the sport's first year in the SEC. Alabama won its first ever national championship in the sport of men's golf. Arkansas won its 12th national title in men's indoor track & field. Florida and Texas A&M shared the national title in men's outdoor track and field after both squads recorded 53 points at the national meet. Georgia's women's swimming and diving team brought home their fifth national title.

Overall, the SEC finished in the top two in 11 of its 21 sponsored sports and in the top five in 13 of the 21 sports. Nine SEC teams participated in football postseason bowls with Alabama winning BCS Championship. Three men's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament and seven women's basketball teams were also invited to the NCAA Tournament. The SEC had nine teams advance to postseason play in baseball with LSU and Mississippi State advancing to the College World Series. With 171 teams advancing to NCAA postseason competition, the SEC continued to solidify its place as the nation's premier conference.

In addition to the seven team championships, 93 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships, while 559 individuals were awarded with First-Team All-America Honors. Student-athletes around the league continued to excel in the classroom as well with more than 3,100 earning recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

On the national all-sport level, 12 SEC schools placed in the top 50 of the NACDA Director's Cup rankings. Florida led the league with a second-place finish. Texas A&M placed fifth while Georgia was 10th; LSU finished 19th, Arkansas 21st, Kentucky 25th, Alabama 26th, Auburn 33rd, Tennessee 37th, Vanderbilt 46th and Mississippi State 49th to round out the league's top-50 finishes.

Jere W. Morehead
University President

Jere W. Morehead became the University of Georgia's 22nd president on July 1, 2013, having previously served as UGA's senior vice president for academic affairs and provost since 2010.

"Becoming president of the University of Georgia is a dream come true for a UGA graduate who has spent more than half of his life on this campus," he said at the time of his appointment. "I truly believe the University of Georgia is poised to become one of the greatest public universities in the United States." In announcing President Morehead's selection, University System Chancellor Hank Huckaby said, "Our students will be in excellent hands under his leadership. Jere will bring the vision and energy essential to UGA advancing its land grant mission."

President Morehead's career covers a wide range of faculty and administrative posts. Prior to 2010, he served UGA in several administrative roles, including vice president for instruction, vice provost for academic affairs, associate provost and director of the Honors Program, and acting executive director of legal affairs. He also has served as vice chair of the Georgia Athletic Association Board of Directors, vice chair of the UGA Research Foundation, UGA Foundation trustee and UGA Real Estate Foundation trustee. From 2003 to 2010, he served as the University's Faculty Athletics Representative.

President Morehead is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as editor-in-chief of the American Business Law Journal and previously held several other editorial board positions with the ABLJ.

He directed the UGA Law School's Advocacy Program from 1986 to 1995 at a time when the moot court teams he coached won international, national, regional and state championships. In 1995, he served as a visiting professor of business law at the University of Michigan. While serving as vice president for instruction, he launched UGA's Washington Semester Program, which now provides over 40 undergraduate students each year with the opportunity to live, work and study in Washington, D.C.

President Morehead has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award – UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence, the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award.

A native of Lakeland, Fla., he served as an assistant United States attorney with the Department of Justice from 1980 to 1986. President Morehead is a 1980 graduate of the UGA School of Law, where he earned a Juris Doctor. He is the first alumnus of UGA to be named president since Dr. Fred Davison in 1967.

Greg McGarity
Director Of Athletics

Athens native and University of Georgia graduate Greg McGarity was named Director of Athletics at UGA on August 13, 2010, after serving 18 years in the athletic department at the University of Florida.

Since that time, McGarity has injected a program of imagination and innovation into the Georgia Athletic Association with emphasis on exploring new ideas and initiatives designed to move the organization forward in all areas of competition, academics, and service.

Among the many initiatives are implementation of a nutrition program for all sports, greater emphasis on customer service as well as community service, scoreboard upgrades enhancing the in-game experience for guests and patrons in all sports, and development of leadership programs fostering staff development. In addition, he has encouraged the experimentation of new ideas such as moving volleyball competition to Stegeman Coliseum and helping bring a sold-out concert (Jason Aldean, 65,000) to Sanford Stadium for the first time in stadium history. He was also instrumental in development and implementation along with Nike of a new brand identity program which brings consistency in use of colors, logos, lettering and numerals to Georgia sports teams.

He was named recipient of the 2013 Tom Osborne Award presented by the Collegiate and Professional Sports Dietitians Association (CPSDA) for special achievement and contributions to advanced-practice sports nutrition.

McGarity oversees a 21-sport athletics program supported by a budget of $92 million. Since becoming Director of Athletics, Georgia teams have won a national championship in women's swimming and diving (2013) and SEC championships in men's tennis (2011 and 2013), women's tennis (2013), women's swimming and diving (2011, 2012, 2013), men's tennis SEC Tournament (2012 and 2013), and two SEC eastern division titles in football (2011 and 2012). During that time 18 different Georgia teams have been ranked in the nation's top 20 and 10 in the top ten. Georgia's standing in the Learfield Director's Cup, which annually measures athletic teams success in NCAA championships, has improved from 20th in 2011 to 10th in 2013.

A 1976 graduate of UGA's Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication, McGarity is a 2012 inductee into the Grady Fellowship, a recognition program to honor those whose influence, achievements and service to the media professions have enhanced the reputation of the Grady College. He was also appointed in 2012 to the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee, a position he will hold through 2016.

At UF, he served as Executive Associate Athletic Director after serving as both an associate and senior associate athletic director during his tenure. His duties at Florida included assisting the athletic director in daily operations of the department, assisting in preparation and approval of the annual budget and extensive involvement in long-term planning, contracts, competition scheduling and employment searches, among other areas. McGarity was involved in the planning and supervision of several construction projects, including the expansion of Ben Hill Griffin Stadium and the William Heavener Football Complex.

McGarity was a letterman on the 1973 Bulldog tennis team and following graduation began his professional career at UGA. After serving as a student assistant from 1973-77, he held positions as assistant sports information director and head women's tennis coach (1977-82), administrative assistant (1982-88), and assistant athletic director for facilities and event management (1988-92).

McGarity is married to the former Sheryl Holland, who graduated from UGA in 1976 with a Bachelor of Science degree in education. They have one son, Alex, a graduate of the University of Florida and the University of Georgia.

2013 Season Outlook

The 2013 Bulldogs looking to build off of last season

Georgia head coach Lizzy Stemke sat down to discuss what's in store for Georgia during the 2013 season...

On the senior class...
"This senior group has made huge strides in the last three years on the court and they are leading the boat this year. Brittany Northcutt is no stranger to taking on a huge load for this squad, playing all six rotations and being responsible for all skills. Allison Summers has matured into an elite libero and with the defense that we run, she has ownership of the back row. Elena Perri has an incredible volleyball IQ and her team leans on her consistency and steady play. Stacey Smith has embraced her role on the right side and had a breakout spring that saw her take her skills to another level. We will see major contributions from every one of these seniors, which is a great position to be in."

On the talent returning for the 2013 season...
"This team has really grown together on and off the court. This group has now worked for almost three years in the new systems and the culture of our gym is becoming second nature now. We have a challenging non-conference and SEC schedule once again and we hope to see our experience pay off."

On her favorite moments from last year...
"We had a lot of firsts last season: first time Georgia has hosted a foreign team, first time the Bulldogs have played in Stegeman Coliseum. We also had some fantastic wins including beating LSU in Baton Rouge for the first time in 15 years. All of these things are evidence that we are building a team that stronger than ever. We were able to take this team on a European tour this past May, which was also a first so this group is having an opportunity to be a part of something really special here at Georgia."

On the newcomers...
"We have two newcomers this season in Amanda Dachs and Elle McCord. However both are from the Atlanta area, so we don't feel like they are newcomers at all. They have been up to Athens to watch us play a number of times and they were great friends of many of our players before stepping foot on campus. For these reasons this might be the easiest transition we could have asked for in a freshmen group. Amanda is a great athlete that, while sidelined much of last year due to an injury, has battled back to become stronger than ever with a determination to help the Bulldogs right away. Elle is a fiery player that will run through walls if you ask her. Both players will fit into our system seamlessly."

On the goals for the season...
"This year we have decided to create many smaller goals that are focused on the process rather than with the end in mind. We will have a lot of fun with this season because we will truly be immersed in the process."

On the nonconference schedule...
"For where our program is and where we want to go, each matchup is key for us. We will have some exciting stops along the way, including a trip to Nebraska to take on the Huskers in their new arena that will be sold out with over 10,000 people in attendance. We will also have another chance at the Kansas Jay Hawks, whom we played in our home tournament two years ago. We have some great regional teams for both of our home tournaments and many of our players will be playing against people that they have either played with or against during their own high school years. Each weekend will be a piece of our 2013 journey and we plan to seize the day in every occasion!"

On the SEC schedule...
"This year in the SEC will be as exciting as it ever has been. So many teams will look differently from years past with new faces. We will no doubt continue to see great athleticism on the floor and it could be anyone's year."

On the strengths of the team...
"More than any other year we are extremely deep and experienced in every position. We had the benefit of the European tour in May, which allowed many of our players the chance to play at a high level. We hope to use this to our advantage."

On the setters...
"Both of our setters are more and more comfortable in our system and leading the court when on the floor or off. They both provide very different personalities but lead in their own way. They are a terrific duo and we could not ask for more in terms of effort and dedication to this team."

On the attackers...
"Our attack is balanced and diverse. We have many players that will be called upon at different times to take over and that is exciting as a coach to have that flexibility."

On the middle blockers...
"In the middle, we have the experience of Jasmine Eatmon, an SEC All-Freshman a year ago, and Elena Perri who for much of the season was in the top three in the conference for blocking statistics. Added to this group will be redshirt freshmen Desiree McCray who bring a wealth of athleticism and competitive drive to the court."

On the defensive specialists...
"The defensive culture of this group stems from our libero Allison Summers. She has embraced this leadership role and will ignite some really exciting rallies this season. Both Gaby Smiley and Elle McCord will be great personalities to follow suit."

On the European trip over the summer...
"This particular trip bonded this group in a way that is impossible to orchestrate. They were on foreign soil, eating different foods and faced many adversities that they are not used to. They had to learn to lean on each other during these experiences. We had some great goal meetings about what we wanted our season to be but the overall time spent together was crucial for everything they want to build this season."

On playing more matches in Stegeman Coliseum this year...
"There is a full production with any competition in Stegeman. The space and all of the bells and whistles over there make it a great event. We are excited to have the opportunity to play even more matches this year and we hope to continue to offer a few matches every year to expose more of our community to our sport."

On why fans should come out to watch the team...
"Volleyball is such a fun sport to watch live and this team is working so hard to not only represent our program but also our University. We have some fantastic role models on the floor and are a great group of young female student-athletes to support."

Lizzy Stemke

Head Coach • Third Season • Record: 25-38
Wisconsin, '04

Lizzy Stemke was named head coach of the University of Georgia women's volleyball program on December 22, 2010. Stemke, the sixth head coach at Georgia since the program's inception in 1978, comes to Athens having spent the past four seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Nebraska.

Stemke led the Bulldogs to an overall record of 14-16 in her second season with the Bulldogs. The recorded included eight wins over SEC opponents. She also coached Jasmine Eatmon to the SEC All-Freshman team and two SEC Freshman of the Week honors. Stemke also led the Bulldogs to a season-sweep of Alabama and Mississippi State and wins over LSU and Missouri. The win at LSU was the first win in Baton Rouge for a Bulldog team since 2001. The team also took perennial league powers Tennessee and Kentucky five sets.

In her first season at the helm of the Bulldogs in 2011, Georgia went 11-19 overall including a 7-13 record in Southeastern Conference play finishing tied sixth in the league.

A former All-American and U.S. National Team member, Stemke helped guide the Huskers to a 116-15 record and four NCAA Volleyball Championship appearances during her time with the program. In Big 12 play from 2007-10, the Huskers went 72-8 with three Big 12 titles.

Stemke's roles at Nebraska included serving as the co-recruiting coordinator, offensive coordinator, setter training, video coordinator, academic and community involvement liaison, and assisting with summer camps and coaching clinics. She played a major role in the recruitment of a pair of top-10 recruiting classes, including the 2009 class that was ranked second nationally by Prepvolleyball.com. Her contributions to NU's success were noticed as she was named one of the country's top-10 assistant coaches by Volleyball Magazine in February of 2010.

Stemke coached two All-American setters at Nebraska in Sydney Anderson and Rachel Holloway. In 2009, Anderson became a two-time All-American, averaging 11.53 assists per set to help Nebraska to a sixth consecutive NCAA Regional Final. In 2008, Anderson earned second-team AVCA All-America honors ranking eighth nationally in assists at 11.60 per set, as the Huskers replaced four All-Americans from the previous season. In Stemke's first year at NU, the Huskers finished in the top three nationally in assists per set (16.42) and hitting percentage (.327) while Holloway finished her college career ranking ninth nationally with 13.58 assists per set.

Prior to Nebraska, Stemke was an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina from 2005-06. At UNC, Stemke served as setters' coach, handled opponent scouting and video exchange, recruiting, team travel and community outreach. In 2005, the Tar Heels won the Atlantic Coast Conference title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

Stemke also has additional experience coaching both at the collegiate and club levels. Since 2007, she has worked with setting and defensive clinics at the Nebraska Volleyball Academy while also assisting with numerous tryouts and summer camps with USA High Performance. Stemke spent the 2003 season as a volunteer assistant at the University of Central Florida, and the Knights won the Atlantic Sun Conference championship and reached the round of 32 in the NCAA Tournament for the second time in school history before finishing with a 23-7 record.

During her time in Florida, Stemke also co-founded the Team Orlando Volleyball Club and acted as its head recruiter and setter and defense clinic coordinator. She has also spent time working with the Triangle Setting Academy, the Wisconsin Power Volleyball Club, the All-American Volleyball Camps and Next Level Volleyball Camp.

Stemke enjoyed a distinguished career at the University of Wisconsin from 1998 to 2001. A three-year starter for the Badgers and team captain from 2000-01, she helped Wisconsin to a 112-23 record, a pair of Big Ten titles and an NCAA runner-up finish in 2000. One of only three two-time AVCA All-Americans in Wisconsin history, she ranked fourth nationally in assists as a senior in 2001, with 13.72 per game when she was named Big Ten Player of the Year. She was recruited to Wisconsin by current Nebraska head coach John Cook, whose last year as Badgers' head coach was 1998.

Following her collegiate career, Stemke spent two years with the U.S. National Team. In 2002, she was a member of the silver medal-winning team at the World Championships. She also helped the U.S. team win a bronze medal at the 2003 Pan-American Games.

After her time with the national team, Stemke spent two seasons playing professionally. In 2003, she was named the Most Valuable Player of the Puerto Rican League. She then spent one season playing in the Pro A League in France.

Stemke earned her Bachelor of Arts in Communications degree from the University of Wisconsin in 2004.

2012 Season Recap

The University of Georgia volleyball team continued to grow under the leadership of Head Coach Lizzy Stemke. The Bulldogs finished the year with a 13-16 record that included eight wins over Southeastern Conference opponents.

Stemke coached Jasmine Eatmon to SEC All-Freshman honors, marking the first time since 2009 that a Bulldog volleyball player had been chosen to the All-Freshman team. It was also the first time since 2010 that Georgia was represented on an All-SEC team. Eatmon was also named the SEC Freshman of the Week twice, becoming the first player to garner SEC weekly honors twice in the same season since 2008. It was also the first time since Maria Taylor in 2005 that a Bulldog has earned Freshman of the Week honors twice in one season.

The season was highlighted by sweeps over Alabama and Mississippi State, the program's first win at LSU 2001 and the first volleyball match played in Stegeman Coliseum.

Georgia started off the season by winning six of its first eight matches, including its first five of the year. After falling to South Carolina, Georgia picked back-to-back SEC wins over Mississippi State and Alabama. In its first televised match of the year, Georgia used a dominating fifth-set to seal a 3-2 win over LSU in Baton Rouge. The Bulldogs had close matches against some of the top teams in the league, including Tennessee and Kentucky.

On Oct. 16, the Bulldogs saw a record number 3,222 fans come to watch them play Georgia Tech in the first volleyball match played in Stegeman Coliseum since the 1996 Summer Olympics.

Georgia was led offensively by Tirah Le'au, who finished with 309 kills for an average of 2.83 kills per set. Brittany Northcutt added 270 kills and averaged 2.81 kills per set to finish second on the team. Eatmon made her presence known in the Bulldog lineup, playing in each of Georgia's 112 sets and finishing with 155 kills and an attack percentage of .253. Newcomer Kaylee Kehoe led the Georgia passing game with 692 assists, but shared time with Maggie Baumert, who finished with 529 assists.

Eatmon finished second on the team with 99 blocks, including 14 solo blocks. Elena Perri developed as a defensive threat, leading the team with 117 total blocks, including 13 solo stops. Allison Summers led the team with 539 digs, followed by Chloe Buckendahl with 254 digs.

Georgia improved from the service line, tallying 123 service aces, led by Buckendahl with 28.

The Bulldogs capped off the year with a 16-day trip to Europe. During the trip, the team competed in six matches in the Czech Republic, Slovenia and Italy. It was the first trip of its kind for the Georgia volleyball program.

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

In January of 1785 — two years after the Revolutionary War — the Georgia legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia. In founding the nation's first state university, the legislature also gave birth to the American system of public higher education. Over the past 220 years, Georgia and its university have grown together as partners in a burgeoning prosperity that has made the University a fast-track contender for educational pre-eminence. With more than 33,400 students, a work force of more than 9,000 and an annual budget of over $1.4 billion, the University of Georgia is Georgia's largest, oldest and most comprehensive educational institution. Widely recognized for excellence in instruction, research and public service, the University has moved into the ranks of America's foremost public universities.

5	According to the Open Doors 2012 list, Georgia ranked fifth in the nation in the number of students who participate in summer and other short-term study abroad programs.
9	The University of Georgia College of Veterinary Medicine was ranked 9th in the most recent U.S. News and World Report ranking of colleges of veterinary medicine.
13	The UGA school of law is ranked 13th among the top public law school's in the nation, according to U.S. News and World Report's 2014 edition of America's Best Graduate Schools
14	Kiplinger Magazine ranks UGA 15th in its 2013 list of the "100 Best Values in Public Colleges."
19	U.S. News & World Report ranks the Terry College's BBA program 19th among public business schools.
21	U.S. News & World Report's 2013 "Best Colleges" edition has UGA ranked 21st among public universities.

Candler Hall

From the hills of Georgia's northland beams thy noble brow, And the sons of Georgia rising pledge with scared vow. 'Neath the pine trees' stately shadow spread thy riches rare. And thy sons, dear Alma Mater, will thy treasures share. And thy daughters proudly join thee, take their rightful place, side by side into the future, equal dreams embrace. Through the ages, Alma Mater, Men will look to thee, thou the fairest of the Southland, Georgia's Varsity. Alma Mater, thee we'll honor, true and loyal be, ever crowned with praise and glory, Georgia, hail to thee.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA
Endowed with 40,000 acres of land in 1784 and chartered in 1785, the charter was the first granted by a state for a government controlled university. After Louisville and then Greensboro were first selected, the current site was chosen.
The first president, and author of the school's charter, Abraham Baldwin, resigned when the doors opened, and was succeeded by Josiah Meigs. The University first began to thrive under Moses Waddel, who became president in 1819. Alonzo Church was president in 1829-1859.
During the War for Southern Independence, most of the students entered the Confederate Army. The University closed its doors in 1864, and did not open again until January 1866. After the war, many Confederate veterans became students.
Famous pre-war professors were John and Joseph LeConte and Charles F. McCay, while famous students were Robert Toombs, Alexander H. Stephens, Howell Cobb, and Crawford W. Long.
Plans for a modern university were first developed by Walter B. Hill and realized under Harmon W. Caldwell. The best known of the post-war presidents (now chancellors) was David C. Barrow. The builder of the modern plant was Chancellor Steadman V. Sanford.
